

EANES LEADS GUNNERS IN HIGH SCORE OVER TRAPS

Northside Clubman Shoots Well, Breaking Forty-Eight Out of Fifty.

BOYD WINS AT WEST END

Amateurs Are Outclassed by Professionals—Louis Rueger Leads Former With Forty-Five Breaks Weather Made Sport Interesting.

A small but enthusiastic bunch of shooters faced the traps at the North Side Gun Club yesterday. Eanes was high gun, with 48 out of 50. Anderson and Price followed closely, with 46 and 44 out of 50. Anderson ran his last twenty-five straight, the first straight of the year.

Perkins shot well except on left quartering targets. He has engaged Lester German to give him a special course on these in the near future. Price, as usual, centered his targets. Several improvements have been made and the accommodations now are very attractive and drawing quite a large gallery each Saturday. All interested in shooting are cordially invited to attend. WEST END GUN CLUB

W. L. Boyd had the amateurs all out on Saturday afternoon at the West End Gun Club. L. Rueger had the 7 fives falling back until this veteran hunter had found target better than any other. He was actually gaining one trench. William Rueger, Jr., was also putting up a stiff fight. He had a few good pushes through his line for good gains. George E. Hawes was the first time using his field gun which he had bought for a quail, was not quite close enough to stop. He had a few points of his last score. He was trying out a few experiments in holding on quartering birds. E. D. Harris, who has not been often this season, could not get the right clinch on his mount, and rode one of the poorest races recorded. Charles H. Haderick landed in three targets of each other, and seemed to enjoy the fact. Lone Jack has twelve points of his credit. In fact, the first four places among the hunters are held by Brookline players. The first eleven include Westerly, Brookline, 107; Kauff, Brookline, 356; Cooper, Brookline, 368; Flack, Chicago, 357; Bradley, Chicago, 358; Mann, Chicago, 357; Bradley, Pittsburgh, 355; Scheer, Newark, 350; Duncan, Baltimore, and Eastern, Kansas City, 340 each. PIZZINI GETS FIRST LEG ON JEFFERSON HOTEL CUP

First Round for Big Trophy Draws Out Many Golfers at Country Club.

RICHMOND HOTEL MATCH NEXT

Qualifying Round Will Be Held Next Saturday—Thirty-Two Lowest Scores Will Continue Under Handicap Match Play for Trophy.

Play in the first round of the Jefferson Hotel tournament brought out a very large field of golfers yesterday at the Country Club of Virginia. The course was in excellent condition after the seasonable rains of the past week, but scoring averages were unusually high.

W. B. Pizzini had the honor of securing the first leg on the trophy with a net score of 69. Second place was taken by Gordon F. Wood, one of the city's young players, with a net score of 75. His gross score of 87 was an excellent effort, and he gives promise of developing into one of the best players in the district. Third place was taken by the "old reliable" Levin Joyner, with a net score of 87. Pizzini scores 3 points; G. F. Wood scores 2 points, and Levin Joyner scores 1 point.

Play for this trophy will take place at different times during the year, and the player with the greatest number of points to his credit at the end of the season will become possessor of the cup.

Next Saturday will be qualifying day for the Richmond Hotel cup. The thirty-two players with the lowest net scores will continue at handicap match play for the trophy. Increasing interest is being taken in the weekly tournaments, and many new players are taking up the game.

Country Club players expect to show up in force at Wilmington, Del., on June 17 for the Middle Atlantic championship, and a number of them are practicing hard daily to get in shape for the event.

ness making it almost impossible to follow his delivery. Sterzer fanned, and Crane hit a triple to center field, which brought the huge crowd to its feet. Breckenridge, however, fanned, and Piek ended the game with a fly to Piek.

The last game was remarkable in many respects. It went for three hours and five minutes, and was featured by some rather remarkable exciting double plays made by the umpires, who continued to give the point exhibition of arbitration seen here this season. Another feature was the unusual number of twenty-three passes issued by four pitchers.
